

Wellness Program Manager Houston, TX

We are seeking an experienced wellness professional with strong presentation skills, wellness/coaching knowledge, and a willingness/ability to travel to support our client based in Houston, TX. This individual will work out of the Houston office and will travel to other national locations to deliver educational wellness classes.

Travel will be involved: 40 - 60% over the course of the year to various national locations.

JOB DESCRIPTION

- Majority of time will be spent delivering one hour wellness classes via 2 modalities:
 - In person delivery at key locations around the country
 - Webinars
- Additional responsibilities will include:
 - Management of the national Wellness Champion Network
 - Supporting the client and StayWell account team in the design, promotion and delivery of the national wellness program
- May also deliver presentations on and provide support for other health and benefit related activities, such as annual enrollment
- Position is open and flexible to changing client needs and demands
 - Responsibilities may change over the course of the year or over time

REQUIREMENTS

- Available to travel up to 60% over the course of a year
- Minimum of a bachelor's degree required in a health-related field
- 4 years relevant health promotion/wellness or health-related program planning and delivery required

Help people stay well, and help your career by working at the company that started it all.

Please submit your cover letter, resume, and salary requirements by applying online directly via our corporate career center at: <http://staywell.com/careers/> Requisition #:1758BR.

Equal Opportunity Employer